FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Free Public Documentary Viewings on Climate Change

Hendersonville, N.C.

Citizens Concerned with the Climate Crisis, a local grass-roots initiative, is offering free showings of the National Geographic climate change documentary “Paris to Pittsburgh” at the following locations:

Sept. 29 @ 2-4 pm Highland Lake Inn & Resort, 86 Lily Pad Lane, Kudzu Cottage, Flat Rock

Oct. 2 @ 5:30-7:30 pm Trinity Presbyterian Church, 900 Blythe St., Hendersonville

Oct. 7 @ 7-9 pm Blue Ghost Brewing, 125 Underwood Rd, Fletcher

Oct. 12 @ 2-4 pm Providence Baptist Church, 1201 Oakland St., Hendersonville

Oct. 13 @ 1-3 pm Dry Falls Brewery, 425 Kanuga Rd., Hendersonville

Oct. 14 @ 5:30-7:30 pm Main Public Library, 301 N. Washington St., Hendersonville

Film showings precede the October 27 Public Forum: “From Climate Talk to Citizen Action” held from 2-4 pm at Grace Lutheran Church, Stull Hall, 1245 Sixth Avenue West, Hendersonville. This free Forum is open to the public and features a climate scientist from NOAA and local panel members discussing the effects of our changing climate on WNC, as well as actions government, business and individuals can take to moderate its impacts. Seating is limited; doors open at 1:30 pm.

Sponsors include Citizens’ Climate Lobby, Conserving Carolina, First Congregational United Church of Christ of Hendersonville, Green River Preserve, Hendersonville Community Coop, Highland Lake Inn & Resort, MountainTrue, Sierra Club of NC (Pisgah), Sundance Power Systems, and the Free Clinics, Hendersonville.
